Teaching Girls About WOMEN ARTISTS

1 Session 1 – June 18-22 Buckets of Color

Beverly Buchanan is a soulful artist who explores her Southern roots in her art. Houses pop up in colorful canvases and mixed media sculptures. With tin, wood and surprise materials campers will build a village of houses and make an artistic garment, a sewn doll, pastel drawings and lively paintings.

2 Session 2 – June 25 - 29 Passionate Paint meets Painterly Pets

Joan Brown was an expressive painter and sculptor. Her main subject was herself in everyday life. She loved her pets and animals frequented her work. Campers will paint mirrors, use thick and thin paints, an abundance of collage materials, and sew shiny and sleek fabrics.

3 Session 3 – July 2-6 (not July 4) Cozy Quilts & Jazzy Paint

Faith Ringgold is a spirited artist who makes mixed media story quilts and 3-D constructions. Her love of jazz and African art inspired her improvisational works. Children will create a soft sculptural doll and a unique textile influenced by African designs. They will also sew and paint a miniature quilt.

4 Session 4 – July 9 –13 Dancing Poems & Enchanted Dresses

Lesley Dill is a powerful artist who works in many media from printmaking to installation. She loves clothes, words and poetry and with these forms creates magical dresses. Children will make an etching and transform the print into a novel doll. They will alter cloth and paper surfaces with unusual techniques.
